Read Along With The Story!

Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall.
Humpty Dumpty had a great fall.
All the king's horses and all the king's men couldn't put Humpty together again.

So some children came along singing Humpty's little song.

So they decided to think of a plan to put Humpty together again.

Working with some glue and tape,
they gave Humpty a new shape.
Now Humpty Dumpty sits on a wall.
Never again will Humpty fall.

Now when Humpty's story is told,
a happy ending will unfold.
Working together to help Humpty mend—working together, they helped a friend.

A colorful illustration of two children, Jack and Jill, falling down a green hill. Jack, a boy with brown hair, is in the foreground, wearing a blue jacket and grey pants, with a surprised expression. Jill, a girl with black pigtails, is behind him, wearing a pink jacket and brown pants, also looking surprised. A red basket with yellow stars is on the ground near Jill. In the background, a well is visible on the crest of the hill under a blue sky with white clouds.

Jack and Jill went up the hill to fetch a pail of water.

Jack fell down and broke his crown,
and Jill came tumbling after.

Oh where, oh where has my little dog gone?
Oh where, oh where can he be?
With his ears cut short and his tail cut long,
oh where, oh where can he be?

This little pig went to market.

This little pig stayed home.

This little pig had roast beef.

This little pig had none.

This little pig cried,
“Wee-wee-wee,” all the way home!

Little Miss Muffet sat on a tuffet eating her curds and whey.
Along came a spider and sat down beside her and frightened Miss Muffet away.
